NOTES FROM THE OFFICE March 31, 2021

I've spent my time since Sunday on a NEASC accreditation visit for a school in New Hampshire. It was a unique experience, as those of us not from NH did not travel to the school, but conducted the accreditation visit virtually! Ours was the first group from NEASC to do so, and we discovered the limitations-and kinks- of examining a school and getting to know all the people involved in this manner. It was a unique experience, but I've had enough screen-time to last quite a while!

Unfortunately, I missed out on one of my favorite school events - the Living Stations. A fourthgrade tradition, directed by Mrs. Werner and Mrs. Ubertaccio, this year's presentation was, of course, different than our pre-COVID experiences. One feature that the teachers incorporated into the stations was to include our fifth graders who missed out on this opportunity last year. Although parents were unable to attend, teachers and our other classes walked the stations, and found the experience very moving. Check out the pictures on social media. Though COVID brought difference, some preferred the new touches and hoped this new format becomes a tradition!

Happy Easter to all our families! Enjoy this most-special time in our year. As we do not currently have COVID cases or close contacts at school, we are NOT sending books and materials home for the weekend. We will see you all back on Tuesday after you have enjoyed a safe, healthy, and joyous Easter!

HOW SNACKS IMPACT OUR CHILDREN'S HEALTH From Nurse Annie

Nutrition

When the right foods are offered at the right times, snacks can play an important role in managing kids' hunger and boosting nutrition. A well-timed snack can even out spikes in hunger and provide energy boost between meals.

For picky eaters of all ages, snacks can be added insurance that they're getting necessary nutrients.

Academic Performance

Nutrition and academic performance are linked. Healthy snacking provides your child's brain with the nutrients it needs, and missing out on healthy snacks can negatively affect school performance.

Children who snack on healthy foods like fruit perform better in school, according to a study published in the journal Medicine. On the flip side, children who snack on sugary foods, sugar-sweetened beverages and other unhealthy foods like instant noodles and fast food don't perform as well academically.

Mood

Healthy snacking contributes to your child's emotional well-being. Snacking on fruit lowers anxiety, boosts mood and lowers emotional distress, say researchers of a study in the journal Frontiers in Nutrition. Scientists found that snacking on potato chips increases fatigue, poor mood states and cognitive difficulties.

Energy and Focus

According to the Women's and Children's Health Network, diet has a significant effect on children's study habits. Junk food and foods with high sugar content deplete energy levels and the ability to concentrate for extended periods of time. Energy and focus are especially crucial for school-age children.

Life long preferences

Eating a lot of processed food during childhood makes it hard to eat healthy in later life as childhood food habits solidify by adulthood. This makes it less likely their palates will later savor the less complicated and less spicy flavors of ordinary food.

• Read serving size information: What looks like a small package can contain 2 or more servings — which means double or even triple the amounts of fat, calories, and sugar shown on the label.

• Be skeptical of food claims:

- If the fat has been eliminated or cut back, the amount of sugar in the food might have increased to keep that food tasting good.
- Just because something is "all natural" or "pure" doesn't necessarily mean that it's nutritious. For example, "all natural" juice drinks or sodas can be filled with sugar (which is, after all, a natural ingredient) but all that sugar means they'll be high in calories and give little nutrition.
- Avoid processed foods and added sugars. Processed foods (made in a factory and sold in bags and boxes) do not have many nutrients and often have a lot of added sugar and salt. In addition, children may become hungry faster after eating processed foods

- Avoid foods with trans fats (also called trans fatty acids). Look for terms such as "partially hydrogenated" or "hydrogenated," which indicate the product contains trans fats.

Dear Families,

During this challenging time, our teachers and students need more help than ever. No matter what school looks like, Box Tops for Education is a fast and easy way for you to help out from home.

The Box Tops program has been around for over 20 years, and it really works. In fact, Box Tops for Education has helped give almost a billion dollars to schools since 1996. In 2019, the program evolved to become digital so that you can earn for your school with just the touch of a button.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS: Buy participating products and use the Box Tops mobile app to scan your store receipt. The app identifies eligible products and automatically adds Box Tops to your school's earnings online. Even if you're shopping online or doing grocery pickup, you can still submit your e-receipts and earn Box Tops. Twice a year, our school gets a check!

Your earnings may seem small, but they really do add up. The more people that participate, the bigger the impact we can make. So let's give our teachers the support they need and help give more kids the opportunity to dream. Little by little, we can help make a big difference.

DON'T HAVE THE APP YET? DOWNLOAD IT TODAY!

SPX earned $676.70 last year! Help us reach our goal of $700 this year!

Our lifetime earnings total $9,771!
