

NOTES FROM THE OFFICE

January 18, 2023

IMPORTANT TOPICS

Wednesday, March 15th Christine Leeman, the School Resource Officer for the diocese, will present an Anti-Bullying session for students in Gr. 5-8 during the school day.

Tuesday, April 4th, Christine will return for an evening parent presentation on the Dangers of Social Media- time to be determined. This is a VERY important topic. We find that inappropriate use of social media is a problem that younger and younger students experience- and it's usually students you would least expect. If your child has a phone or a personal device- this session is for you! Registration for this event will be required, and information forwarded at a later date.

A reminder that Catholic Schools Week kicks off with...

OPEN HOUSE and PASTA DINNER

Open House is Saturday, January 28th from 2:00-4:00. Pre-Registration is required. If you know family or friends who are considering our school, have them sign up from the website (always a good place to investigate SPXS) or go here:
https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSc5_NR_VD2wDrJ7gnO7oBbZsuDhwGLDakQPuDFRPd0ekcdr5Q/viewform

The Pasta Dinner follows Open House, in the Life Center, at 4:30. To those of you who are new or newer to our school, the dinner is an opportunity to experience the SPXS spirit, share time with families, enjoy a wonderful meal- and maybe even win a one-of-a-kind raffle basket or take home the door prize!

COIN DRIVE CONTEST to prevent homelessness

January 16 – 20

PK – Gr. 1 may bring in any coins

Grades 2 – 8 please bring in quarters only

Students in Grades 5-8 will be creating a Cardboard Box City in the school gym on January 27th from 5:30 – 7:30pm.

Middle School students will be participating in the “Cardboard Box City” an experience to learn how to prevent homelessness. They will prepare and share a modest meal, listen to a speaker, prepare care packages, and make blankets to be donated to a local organization.

Students are to wear their House t-shirts and gym uniform pants. Students should bring a box with them on January 27th which they will use as their shelter. No electronic devices will be allowed. Students who bring phones must check them in with a teacher when they arrive and pick them up when they leave.

The background of the entire poster is decorated with stylized fireworks in shades of blue, orange, and pink, and clusters of colorful circles in purple, blue, orange, and green at the corners.
